Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will create character clovers.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- What roles do people have at school?
- How do people know how to act in different roles?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor tells the student that today students will be creating character clovers. In order to help the students create character clovers, counselor will begin with a brainstorming session.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Counselor tells the students that today they will be talking about the roles that students have in school and the traits that accompany those roles. 2. Counselor asks the students, “What roles do you have here at school?” As the student respond, counselor records the answers on board, chart paper, etc. 3. Counselor says, “With each role that we have, we also have certain trait that we exhibit in those roles. For instance, as a counselor, I am caring, I am a good listener, I am friendly, I am responsible, etc. What traits do you exhibit in your school roles?” Counselor records answers as done earlier. 4. Counselor explains that each student will be creating a character clover. On one side of the clover, students will list their school roles (one role on each of the petals). On the back, the students will identify the trait that they use the most in that role and write it on the 	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students listen. 2. corresponding petal.
5. Have students share their favorite petal of the clover and tell how they feel about having that personal characteristic.	5. Students share character clovers.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher may display the character clovers by punching a hole in the top and stringing them in the classroom. Teacher may refer to the clovers to reinforce positive behaviors.
